The authors regret the use of incorrect schematic diagram in Fig. 4A and its corresponding figure caption. The updated figure (Fig. 4A) and its caption is provided below. In the results section (Section 3.4), there would be a change in line number 6, wherein the word ‘extrinsic’ would be replaced by the word ‘intrinsic’.

The authors would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Caption: Fig. 4A. Schematic representation of the intrinsic coagulation pathway and the role of Factor VIII in enhancing blood clotting.
